Heart of a Hawk: One family's sacrifice & journey toward healing

Deborah H. Tainsh

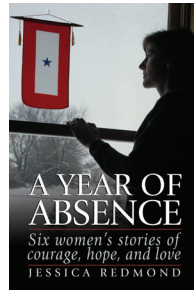

On the morning of February 12, 2004, David and Deborah Tainsh received the news that their son, Sgt. Patrick Tainsh, had been killed in Iraq. Deborah shares Patrick's inspiring story, from his rebellious, drug-addicted youth to his role as a U.S. Army Cavalry Scout, posthumously awarded the Bronze and Silver Stars for saving the lives of his commanding officer and other soldiers before succumbing to his own wounds. In the wake of their loss, Deborah brings us on her family's unforgettable journey toward healing.

192 pages. 6" x 9" Paperback. $14.95
ISBN 978-0-9657483-8-4 Case = 60

A Year of Absence: Six women's stories of courage, hope, and love

Jessica Redmond

Tells the stories of six women whose husbands, all members of the U.S. Army's First Armored Division based in Germany, deploy to Iraq. A lieutenant's wife comes dangerously close to alcoholism. Marriages are pushed to the breaking point by the strain of fifteen months apart. Each day the women anxiously scan the headlines, wondering if they still have a husband, if their children still have a father. Some form friendships that become their lifeline. Others find courage despite their isolation.
