A morning of inspiration and renewal with speaker Karen Pavlicin

Popular workshop leader KAREN PAVLICIN returns to Fort Drum with new insights and new activities along with the old favorites you've heard about! The award-winning author of Surviving Deployment: A guide for military families and Life After Deployment: Military families share reunion stories and advice, Karen is a national speaker known for her practicality, inspirational insight, and sense of humor. She shares real-world solutions from her own experience as a military wife, as well as from hundreds of military families she has worked with in all branches of service. Come spend a morning with other military spouses. Laugh, renew your energy, share ideas, and be inspired!
